

GREEN YOUR HOME REHAB WORKSHOPS

Learn key concepts in energy efficiency and sustainability, the differences between older and new materials, how to make your home as green as possible and how historic preservation and sustainability goals align. Follow along on our journey as we attempt to rehabilitate a small house in the Fletcherville National Register Historic District using green practices.

Workshop I: For the Public

Thursday, January 19, 2012

6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Everyone invited! Free of Charge!

Dinner provided.

St. Thomas Episcopal Church Parish Hall

216 Remington Avenue

Contact Thomasville Landmarks to reserve your spot.

229 226-6016 or tli@rose.net

Seville
CONSULTING

Workshop II: For the Professional

Friday, January 20, 2012

7:30 a.m. breakfast

8 a.m. – Noon workshop

For Building and Real Estate Industry professionals.

Ask us about Continuing Education Credits.

Contact Thomasville Landmarks to reserve your spot.

229 226-6016 or tli@rose.net

www.ThomasvilleLandmarks.org for more information

LOCAL PARTNER
NATIONAL TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION®

Thank you to our sponsors
Olson Architects
The Cherokee Foundation
The Williams H. Flowers, Jr. Foundation

THOMASVILLE
LANDMARKS